CROSBY, Scott

I am a 42 year old farmer, husband and father of two young children committed to building a sustainable council for the Nyabing and Pingrup residents. I am a passionate and progressive member of my industry and the community. I have been actively involved with agriculture since starting Narrogin Ag School at age 15. I am currently a Councillor for the Shire of Kent and have been for the past four years. I am currently on the committee of the Nyabing Progress Association and actively involved in our local bushfire brigade. I am committed to sustainable regional development to ensure prosperity and security for residents now and into the future. I promise to be accessible to all community member to ensure that everyone has a voice. If elected, I guarantee to bring energy, knowledge and the ability to implement effective and reliable leadership to our communities.
